a collection of texts against the assimilation, whitewashing, and cooption of queers by pride™

NO COPS AT PRIDE

01 Cops Don't Belong at Pride, "Unseemly" Queer People Do

THE QUEER NATION MANIFESTO

Text of a manifesto originally passed out by people marching with the ACT UP contingent in the New York Gay Pride Day parade, 1990.

20 How can I tell you?
22 An Army of Lovers Cannot Lose
23 I'm Angry
25 [Untitled]
27 If You're Queer, Shout It!
27 Shouted
27 Shout It!
28 [Untitled]
30 Where Are You Sisters?
32 [Untitled]
34 Why Queer?
35 No Sex Police
35 [Untitled]
38 I Hate Straights
39 Let Yourself Be Angry

XSTORY

41 Stonewall 1979: The Drag of Politics
45 Sylvia Rivera - "What the fuck's wrong with you all?"
47 Queen Power: Rat Subterranean News. 1979
50 Stonewall's Transgender Legacy
56 Shame On Pride for Selling out Queers!

ap, may 2025
transrights not © :)
abject.noblogs.org

Marsha P Johnson
2nd annual Gay Liberation Day,
New York, June 27, 1971

Cops Don't Belong at Pride, "Unseemly" Queer People Do

Marsha P. Johnson and the failures of queer respectability

Alexander Petrovnia

May 20, 2021

There has been a huge amount of discourse recently around respectability within the queer community, and the presence of police officers there. Many people, especially young queer people, do not know our history around this issue. I hope this will help to educate some of us as to how long and brutal this fight has been

Riot police break up protest by Un party gay mene à une opération policière Jugée «très violente»
45 men and women arrested at sit-in outside police

«Les coups donné
suremont justifié
mpu à coups de matraques

Police brutality has always been, and continues to be, a queer issue.

Prison abolition has always been, and continues to be, a queer issue.

#NoCopsAtPride #NoCopsAtPride #NoCopsAtPride #